

Job Seeker FAQ'S

What age does a job seeker have to be to attend the job fair?

Attending the job fair is a great experience for all Job Seekers, but participating employers will be hiring mostly ages 15 and older.

Do job seekers need to have any experience or training?

Employers will be hiring for entry-level positions. No experience is required. If you would like assistance preparing a resume, contact the CVCC Career Specialist at your high school or Karen Schroedel, Adult Education Career Specialist at kschroedel@cvccworks.edu or Martha Sluka, Career & Community Resource Specialist at mssluka@cvccworks.edu.

Will there be volunteer opportunities available at the job fair?

Yes, there will be both paid and volunteer opportunities available.

Do adults have to accompany student job seekers to the job fair?

It is not necessary for adults to accompany student job seekers.

Should parents assist student job seekers with completing applications and speaking to employers?

It is not recommended for parents to assist students at the job fair or attend in place of their student. Employment specialists will be available to assist job seekers.

Can job seekers complete applications before arriving at the job fair?

Although the employment applications are not available prior to the job fair, we recommend job seekers bring the completed General Application to the job fair. Some employers will accept this application; others may require their own to be completed.

How long will job seekers be at the job fair?

Most job seekers will spend approximately 1-1.5 hours at the job fair.

Which employers will be at the job fair?

A current list of Participating Employers will be available on our website. Check back frequently as the list changes often. Follow #CVCCJobFair on Twitter to get updates.

Where can job seekers get information on work permits?

Work permit information will be available at the job fair and can be found in the main office of most high schools.
