Angel returns to CVCC every so often to speak to students. She also talks to local groups such as the Brecksville Kiwanis about Autism. However, her community contributions include much more than talking the talk, but walking the walk...literally. Angel and her mother participate in Walk Now for Autism, a fundraiser they are partly responsible for bringing to northeast Ohio from Pennsylvania. Their team is called Angel’s Army, which alone has raised more than $45,000. This year’s walk is Aug. 23 at Progressive Field. More information is available at: www.walknowforautismspeaks.org.

In addition to her job, her presentations to groups and her work with Autism Speaks, Angel sings with her church’s Prayersong Choir at St. Barnabas in Northfield. A few years ago, the choir traveled to Europe to sing for the pope. During one of their concerts, they performed with The Three Tenors.

Angel, an aunt to 10 nieces and nephews, continues to inspire people every day through her job, her community activism and her vocal talents, and for all of this, she is the quintessential Cuyahoga Valley Career Center Alumna of the Year.

that help CVCC students become presentable and prepared in order to successfully interview for jobs. Victor and other Sohar’s personnel also assist with the product research project that the Power Equipment Technology junior students participate in annually.

Power Equipment Technology instructor Jerry Koenig nominated Mr. Sohar and his business.

“Victor exemplifies what Spirit of Service means through involvement, caring and dedication to the Power Equipment program here at CVCC,” said Mr. Koenig.

Barre None: These Wonderful Adult Ed Wellness Classes Start in September

CVCC’s Adult Education will offer several wellness classes starting in September, featuring yoga, Pilates and more. If it’s variety you like, there are some combination classes such as...

Pilates Props Combo
This class includes exercises with bands, balls and student-supplied three-pound weights. The exercises and use of these props will sculpt your muscles while improving your balance, posture and flexibility. Class starts Sept. 9.

Barre Blend Blast
This workout incorporates principles of ballet, Pilates and isometric exercises. Using up-tempo music, a chair is incorporated as “barre” to assist in exercises, which will enhance your strength, balance, coordination and flexibility. Class starts Sept. 9.

Complete Body Progression
This class combines Pilates Prop Combo and Barre Blend Blast. Your body will reap the benefits! Class starts Sept. 9

Pilates for Every Body
Build core strength and increase overall flexibility through a series of exercises that focus on specific muscle groups. Positive results of Pilates: improves posture and balance, prevents back pain, reduces stress, enhances athletic conditioning, deepens yoga practice, provides injury prevention, increases body awareness, and boosts immune system. Exercises will be modified to offer a safe yet challenging workout for beginner to intermediate levels. Class is not recommended for pregnant women. Exercise props provided, except for three-pound weights or lighter hand weights when needed. Class starts Sept. 14.

Yoga, The Whole Body and Mind
Align the body physically with Asana (yoga postures), breathing practices, relaxation and meditation. Bring yoga mat, small blanket or towel, water bottle. Classes start Sept. 22.

School of Practical Nursing Pre-Entrance Test Dates
