CVCC has an institutional scholarship available to one Practical Nursing Student annually. The Scholarship is offered by the family of Ruth M. Koesel a 1975 graduate of The Parma School of Practical Nursing (The School of Nursing at CVCC was formerly The Parma School of Practical Nursing.) The Scholarship pays the book and supply fees of one student annually. The Scholarship is offered alternating years between the Full Time and Part Time Practical Nursing programs. The candidate must be a single parent. Other criteria which may be considered by the family in selecting a recipient are: widow/widowers, Expected Family Contribution determined by the FAFSA, age, Work Keys test scores. The Scholarship Application will be provided in your enrollment packet, or can be requested in the Nursing Department. Please submit your applications by the due date stated, which is typically earlier than the published official book pick up date. The scholarship was awarded for the first time to a student in the Full Time Practical Nursing class of 2011-12. The second recipient was in the Part Time Practical Nursing class of 2012-14.
